

Conference
for teachers

and
school leaders

Making the connections - local to global within Birmingham between Birmingham and the wider world

To bring together school practitioners from all sectors.

It will develop three creative strands ...

- Our own thinking about global development issues.
- The challenges for learning in the global city: Birmingham.
- What we [as a network of teachers] need to prioritise to enable practice responding to those challenges.

The event will shape plans for a new Tide~ BEP curriculum development programme focusing on global connections.

To book a place ... link to Event Bright

<https://tideglobalconference.eventbrite.co.uk>

Tide~ and BEP - working in partnership

TIDE~
global learning

Birmingham a global city? - making the connections

Conference: Saturday 7th January 2017 10.00 - 2.45

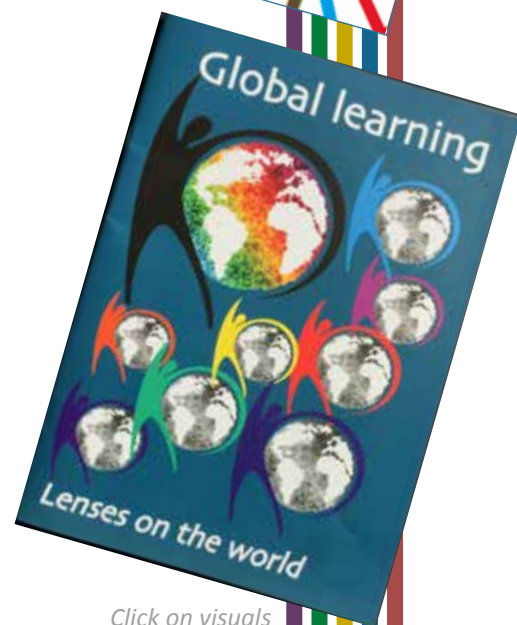

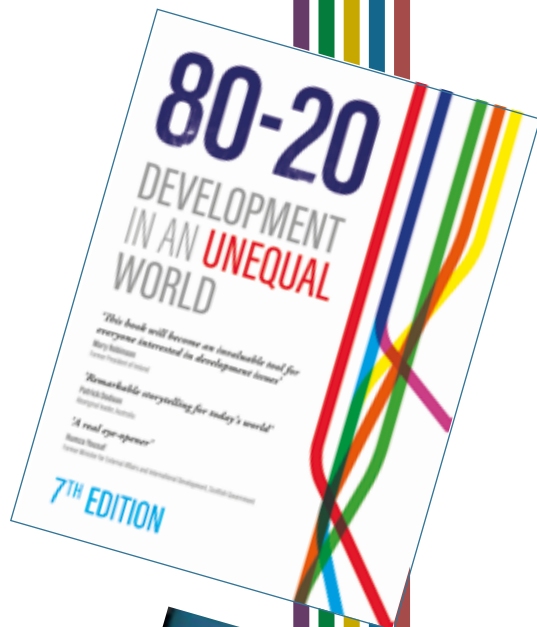

hosted by Moseley School and Sixth Form, College Road, B13 9LR

Moseley School and Sixth Form

Programme

- 9.45 Registration
- 10.00 Introduction
Roger McBrien - Head, Moseley School
Scott Sinclair - Tide~ Trustee
- 10.15 Reflecting on global development issues
An input to stimulate our thinking and get us debating.
Colm Regan as editor and author has a wide range of experience of the issues ... and of making them accessible to learners. 80-20 development in an unequal world
- 11.15 Coffee
- 11.45 Lenses on the world - a challenge to our plans?
Moseley School students involved in the project will reflect on their experience and offer us some challenges.
A copy of the publication will be given to all delegates
- 12.15 Learners in a global city - Birmingham
How do we see the challenges and opportunities for learning in a changing city?
Bringing together ideas and key debates.
Introduced by
Tim Boyes - CEO, Birmingham Education Partnership.
Rita Chowdhury - Tide~ Trustee, Previously Senior Advisor.
- 13.15 Lunch
- 13.45 Launch - Global Connections and Learning
A new curriculum development programme led by teachers ... focusing on global connections and learning in a changing Birmingham.
How do we want to shape the plan?
What are the professional development opportunities?
Taking it forward: Margaret Barnfield, Chair Tide~ Trustees
- 14.45 Finish

Click on visuals
or more info
on publications

To book places ..... link to Event Bright ...

<https://tideglobalconference.eventbrite.co.uk>

Registration fee - £25 [This can be invoiced]
Coffee and a sandwich lunch will be provided

There are some complimentary places eg for student teachers
For this and other information email scott.7cs.org@gmail.com