

Case study in practice: Stockholm

A Productive City

- How is the city helping to develop the local economy?

Stockholm city helps corporate investors to find out about setting up in the city.

www.stockholmbusinessregion.se/templates/indexpage____40941.aspx?epslanguage=EN

- How does the city help with the essential costs of living (transport, housing, water, food, energy etc)?
- How does the city help people to enjoy the benefits of city life?

Stockholm promotes city life for tourists and citizens.

www.stockholm.se/-/English/Stockholm-by-theme-/Culture

A Well-Governed City

- How is the city managed (Mayor, council structure, community groups, participation etc)?

There are twelve Vice Mayors and an executive board!

www.stockholm.se/-/English/Politics-and-organisation/Organisation-/

- How are the needs and ideas of residents included in decision making?

There is decentralized decision-making so that district councils make decisions on local issues.

www.stockholm.se/-/English/Politics-and-organisation/Democracy-/

- How is the city planning for the future?

The City of Stockholm has a clear aim for the city.

<http://www.stockholm.se/-/English/Politics-and-organisation/>

Video of Stockholm in 2030

www.stockholm.se/-/English/Stockholm-by-theme-/Urban-Development-/

An Inclusive City

- How is the city providing a safe and healthy environment for everyone?

Stockholm has developed a health care website to support the health service, for all patients.

www.stockholmchallenge.se/data/varldguiden_stockholm_heal

- How does the city respect diversity and build a sense of community?
- How does the city ensure the human rights of its residents?

There is a discrimination officer to protect Equal Opportunities.

www.stockholm.se/-/English/Stockholm-by-theme-/Equal-opportunities

A Sustainable City

- How is the city meeting its energy needs?
- How sustainable are the transport choices in the city?

- How is the city promoting sustainable waste management?

A district of Stockholm called Hammarby Sjostad has been developed using sustainable building techniques and environmental urban planning, including energy, water and transport.

www.hammarbysjostad.se

The City of Stockholm runs an Environment programme.

www.stockholm.se/-/English/Stockholm-by-theme-/Environment

