

What is it about a city?

Cities are place of change. They always have been. What does this mean in terms of understanding global issues in 2012 ... and looking to the future.

What are the connections between people, their needs and their aspirations?

Cities

What are the things that make a city?

What visions for the future?
What city images are projected?

Different cities ... issues in common?
In what ways are they the same?

People

What are the needs of people?

An aspect of people's identity?

People in development roles
What focus for change?

Your place ... part of your identity?
In what ways?

... and

Change

Process of change?

Organisations seeking change in your area?

What changes would you work for?

If cities are to lead the way for a better future ...

What are the key development issues
they need to work on?

Ideas developed by: Scott Sinclair, Cyfanfyd esdgc schools network [Wales]

